Dan Vos Construction Company Selected as Winner of National Best and Brightest Companies to Work For!

Ada, Mich. — After being named to the list of 101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For in West Michigan, Dan Vos Construction has now been recognized on a national level. For the first time in its history, the National Association for Business Resources has named the Best and Brightest Companies To Work For™ in the country. (See following list of winners.)

The 87 winning companies of 2011 were assessed by an independent research firm which reviewed a number of key measures relative to other nationally recognized winners. They include Communication, Community Initiatives, Compensation and Benefits, Diversity and Multiculturalism, Employee Education and Development, Employee Engagement and Commitment, Recognition and Retention, Recruitment and Selection, Small Business and Work-Life Balance.

“We were already exceptionally proud to have been named to the Best and Brightest of West Michigan,” said Dan Vos, Executive Vice President of Dan Vos Construction. “Being recognized on a national level truly exemplifies the fact that our employees really are our greatest asset and demonstrates how important they are in everything we do.”

With more than 10 years of experience conducting Best and Brightest Company competitions, the National Association for Business Resources (NABR) have identified numerous best HR practices and provided benchmarking for companies that continue to be leaders in employment standards.

“It truly is an impressive list of honorees,” said Vos. “It’s a real honor to represent West Michigan.”

“Nationally recognized award recipients keep innovative human resource initiatives at the forefront of their company culture and make it a priority to consider their workforce as an essential aspect in their company success. Our Association is proud to recognize and honor these winning companies for this fine achievement,” said Jennifer Kluge, NABR president.
